How our website works:

Perfect Fit Vacations is an advertising venue for vacation rentals in the Okanagan Valley. Users may select a property and we will check with the owners to confirm availability and if available, we will connect the guests with the owners of the chosen property.

Once an owner and guest have connected, all terms and conditions, payments, arrangement of keys, etc, are solely the responsibility of the owners and the guest. We are no longer involved in the transactions. We do not charge owners to advertise on our website, but upon a successful reservation , we will collect a marketing fee from the owner for the advertisement of their properties.

Cancellation policies and terms are individual to each owner and should be set out in the booking terms and viewable, prior to your submission of the request. Should no booking terms be available, please let us know before you submit the request. Owners must supply you with a rental contract.

All owners are bound to honor the agreement, however, we cannot guarantee this, and all common sense should be used when signing contracts, please don't hesitate to ask the owner about any concerns or questions you have, if at any time you feel uncomfortable, kindly contact us and we will do our best to help you resolve the issues.

All booking aspects of the property become confidential between you and the said owner. We cannot be held liable for any misrepresentations of the owners or for their obligation to fulfil their duty upon renting their property. All monies exchanged are completely between the owner and the guest, and we advise you to pay with a reputable form of payment, and to get receipts and details in writing.

Any concerns regarding using our website or with owners after or during a booking, must be brought to our attention immediately. Do not continue with an owner if you feel uneasy, or suspect any suspicious behavior, please contact us directly at 250-452-6868.
